Defendants-Appellees.

On March 6, 2007, the Court heard oral argument on the application for leave to appeal the March 16, 2006 judgment of the Court of Appeals. On order of the Court, the application is again considered, and it is GRANTED. The parties shall include among the issues to be briefed: (1) whether Simko v Blake, 448 Mich 648 (1995), recognized a "judgment" exception to legal malpractice liability that operates independently of the standard of care, unlike the malpractice standards for other professions; (2) if not, whether this Court should recognize such an exception; and (3) how would such an "attorney judgment rule" operate in practice; and (4) under what circumstances could a claimed exercise of "judgment" be successfully challenged.

The State Bar of Michigan, the Criminal Defense Attorneys of Michigan, the Insurance Institute of Michigan, and the Michigan Insurance Federation are invited to file briefs amicus curiae. Other persons or groups interested in the determination of the issues presented in this case may move the Court to file briefs amicus curiae.
